

Legal service

ADMINISTRATIVE AND URBAN PLANNING

We provide specialized legal advice to real estate sector operators, including investment funds, companies, and individuals. Our team handles all stages of the real estate process, from contract and corporate matters to tax, financial, and contentious issues.

Services provided:

- Legal advice for real estate development, construction, segregation of properties and new construction declarations.
- Negotiation and legal advice on leasing contracts for housing, commercial or industrial premises.
- Purchase, sale and corporate transactions with underlying real estate.
- Sales and transactions related to real estate and credit portfolios.
- Legal advice in sale and exchange transactions, or contribution to real estate companies.
- Legal advice on transactions in the form of participation in projects promoted by third parties or acquisition of real estate holding companies.
- We specialize in Joint Ventures for the development, management, and promotion of various real estate projects and contracts.
